purpose of organization/mission statement (send to Bill to pick which he prefers) produce original audio theater serve the community of people who are interested in the art form of audio drama by presenting them with examples and educating them in how to create it.

presenting live performances, producing recordings, and educating the public on the history and production of audio drama.

DragonCon performances went well. Increased hits on our web site also. Sales low due to location, lack of new product.

Next show at end of October at Academy Theatre, then Christmas show at Academy. DB to meet with Robert to arrange which other groups will be performing with ARTC.

ARTC is in talks with AnachroCon, Feb. 25-27. Materials are being prepared by Brad Strickland, Ron Butler.

Spring show at Academy (April 30-May 1), Dancer in the Dark. DB exploring ways to record Dancer and have it ready for sale at the show.

Discussion of production budget. Looking into use of printable CDs for CD-R labeling.

Clair to design generic ads for convention program books
