Notes from the Meeting of the Whole:

No tape production report this month.

David is almost done with "Assassins"—needs more effects.

Show at ASFS was well received. Sales report to follow later.

Bill is negotiating with a group at a Unitarian church to organize a coffeehouse.

Stone Mountain Christmas show—2 or 3 30-minute sets, Dec. 14 and 15. Bill to arrange schedules/scripts with cast.

Oreta to discuss Festival of Trees with Fiona.

Pump House Players are doing a Christmas show; they would like other groups to come in and perform short pieces with them. Oreta to contact William and Henry.

David left some tote bags, CDs and cassettes at the Advantix booth.

There were two items that were defective; tapes and CDs will now be checked.

Daniel Taylor still working on the shopping cart.

Oreta to write a proposal to Stone Mountain re later ARTC performances (history and holiday-related; quarterly; etc.)

Daniel K. suggested that we investigate the radio show at the Folkways Center in Dahlonaga and see what ideas or contacts we can get from them.
